The Flying Saucer Conspiracy

By Donald Keyhoe (copyright 1955)

Reviewed by Dick Moss, MN MUFON State Director

In the past two issues I have gone back to the early days and related the flyer saucer story as reported by Donald Keyhoe. In this issue we continue with a short synopsis of his third book "The Flying Saucer Conspiracy", published in 1955. As a retired Marine pilot, he was on a first-name basis with many military leaders and was able to obtain information that would have been impossible for others. He was also aided by insiders who knew and respected him. His books read like mystery novels and he seems to have remembered everything said during his many conversations. At that time, a lot of attention was focused on Mars either as the possible home planet for UFOs or as a base. Much of his material attempts to rationalize UFO events with possible explanations. As before, I will mainly summarize some of the early incidents he reported along with his knowledge of early cover-up efforts. Keyhoe always included some truly unbelievable sighting accounts with the idea, I think, that any one of them would blow the lid off the secrecy and coverup. He wrote with a chronological and coherent storyline and his books must be read in their entirety to get the full impact of his efforts. Although out of print, the reader might be able to obtain copies through inter-library loan. As one of our members said recently, "He now reads better than ever!"

In late 1953, a Joint Chiefs of Staff document, JANAP 146, had specified that pilots should report UFOs immediately using a secret emergency system. A pilot who revealed his report to the public could be sent to prison for ten years and fined $10,000. A later document specified court-martial penalties.

Also in 1953, an order called AFR200 had been issued by the Secretary of the Air Force which provided that only hoaxes, practical jokes, and erroneous UFO reports could be given to the press. All genuine reports were to be kept from the public. Photos of radarscopes showing saucer maneuvers, pictures of saucers, and any parts of these craft, actual or suspected, were to be immediately flown to the Air Technical Intelligence Center at Dayton, Ohio.

In December of 1953 there was a radar sighting of an object over the So Locks in upper Michigan. An F-89 from Kimross Field was sent in pursuit over Sioux Saint Marie towards Whitefish Bay on Lake Superior. The F-89 closed in but there were no words to ground radar that they had spotted the object. The two blips suddenly merged into one, which quickly went off the scope. Search planes with flares were sent out. Later, boats from America and Canada criss-crossed the area, but no trace was ever found.

In November of 1954, a Brazilian airliner was bound for Rio de Janeiro when 19 round machines, each at least 100 feet in diameter, rapidly approached the plane and flashed past and beneath the wings. Some of the passengers saw a few of them and stampeded. One woman ran into the pilot's compartment. For a while, the cabin was a madhouse and the crewmen had to use force to subdue the passengers.

Keyhoe told for an odd incident in which a flaming hot object had flashed past cars and pedestrians in East New Haven, Connecticut. It punched through a metal billboard and then angled sharply upward before vanishing.

Although Sputnik was not launched until 1959, Keyhoe got wind of a story that something was orbiting earth at 499-600 miles over the equator. It had supposedly been discovered accidentally by experimental long-range radar. The date was not given but it had to pre-date the book in 1955.

We have all heard stories of newly-appearing features and strange lights on the moon. Keyhoe devoted an entire chapter to this in the book. It seems that on the night of July 29, 1953, John O'Neill, editor of the Herald Tribune (city not named) was observing the moon with a 90X eyepiece when he spotted a giant bridge above the Mare Crisium crater. It was over 12 miles long. He then viewed in with a 250X eyepiece and saw its sharp outline, he reported this bridge to the Association of Lunar and Planetary observers. Although attacked by some, the British astronomer, Dr. H.P. Wilkins confirmed its existence. Then another lunar authority, Patrick Moore, also reported observing it. Weeks later, Dr. Wilkins appeared on a British radio broadcast and disclosed the story. During the interview, Wilkins said that the bridge looked artificial. When pressed on this statement, he further claimed that the bridge looked almost like an engineering job. Later in the book, Keyhoe claims that astronomers at Mount Palomar had confirmed the existence of the bridge. Spectrographic analysis had proved it was constructed of metal.

Keyhoe then gave several examples of lunar anomalies. Early in the 19th century, Sir John Herschel had seen bright lights when the moon was dark during an eclipse, some seemed to be moving above the moon. patterns resembling city streets were seen by Gruithuisen. 1869 saw an eruption of lights. During a three-year study by the Royal Astronomical Society lights appeared in circular groups, triangular formations, and straight lines. After nearly 2000 observations, the lights ceased.

In 1912, Dr. FB Harris saw a huge object (50 miles across) traversing the moon's face. Straight and curved walls have appeared in several craters. In 1950 Wilkins picked up a glow apparently from an object hovering near a crater's floor, white domes have also abruptly appeared inside craters.

Getting back to sightings, there was a spooky case involving a night object in South Dakota on August 12, 1953. Spotted by Ground observer Corps, an F-84 was sent up to chase it. After a pursuit that took it 100 miles to the north, the pilot was running low on fuel, so turned back. Radar operators at the base watched the UFO also reverse and follow the jet all the way back. Then another F-84 tried it and chased it 160 miles north before turning back. GOC farther north was alerted and they reported seeing the saucer. I believe this was at Bismarck.

Another dramatic story involved three airlines. One plane, piloted by Jack Adriance, was at 20,000 feet on a flight from Puerto Rico to New York when a call was sent from a pilot 200 miles behind him that an object had streaked past. "It's headed straight toward you," said the pilot. Moments later the UFO flashed past. Adriance then alerted another Pan Am pilot still further ahead, who saw the object fly by and disappear in seconds.

Another interesting incident involved another F-51 propeller-driven fighter plane over

Columbus, Ohio. The pilot, who didn't believe in UFOs, gave chase and the object, as usual stayed ahead of him. Then the object got behind and followed the F-51. Radioing the FAA Tower at Vandalia Airport the pilot said, "I'll circle the tower so you can see it. " The Controller was able to watch the object through binoculars, but could not see through the bright glow to discern any shape. The pilot dropped his flaps and tried to slow down quickly but the strange light matched his move with perfect precision. The UFO shot past the F-51 and disappeared.

A United Airlines pilot over Ohio took an unusual step when he was told by Air Defense radar that there was a UFO above him. The pilot was asked if he would see it. He used the loud-speakers to tell his 60 passengers of the request. He said, "I'll make a wide circle. We'll be banked so you can look up and the object to." The passengers looked up to see an oval UFO glowing in the sun. The pilot might have wanted witnesses in case he was ridiculed later.

UFO censors were stunned by a tragic incident involving an F-94 jet sent up to check an unknown object near Utica, New York. As the jet approached the UFO, the cockpit became filled with a wave of heat so intense that the pilot thought his plane might burst into flames, he ordered his radarman to bail out. Half blinded by sweat he got a glimpse of the object overhead. After another blast of heat, he pulled the ejection lever. The jet plunged into the heart of Walesburg, New York. Four people were killed, two of them children.

Donald Keyhoe was a personal friend of radio personality Frank Edwards. Edwards had a regularly scheduled program in which he often talked about UFOs. His sponsor was the American Federation of Labor. One day, Keyhoe got a call from Edwards that he was being muzzled by his sponsor.

George Meany, president of the AFL, had told him that he would have a censor at this elbow every minute. Meany told Edwards that he could not mention UFOs except to quote press reports, but was not to comment on them.

Edwards resigned from the show. The Air Force offered Edwards a job in which he would supposedly be helping to prepare the public. A general told him he would have to sign a two year contract and could not broadcast or publish on any subject without their permission. The book doesn't say if Edwards accepted.

Truly bizarre UFO behavior was reported one day to the British War Office. A civilian radarscope had tracked 50 UFOs flying in a U formation which switched into two parallel lines and then into a perfect Z. At noon the next day there was a repeat performance. Radar stations and RAF bases were put on alert. At noon on the third day, the show continued. Although tracked perfectly on all radarscopes, the UFO formation was invisible. The mystery formation returned four more times at noon. Each time ground observers scanned the area indicated by radar. Pilots at 12,000 feet looked down only to see empty skies. A War Office spokesman told the London Sunday Dispatch that UFOs can be invisible to the human eye.

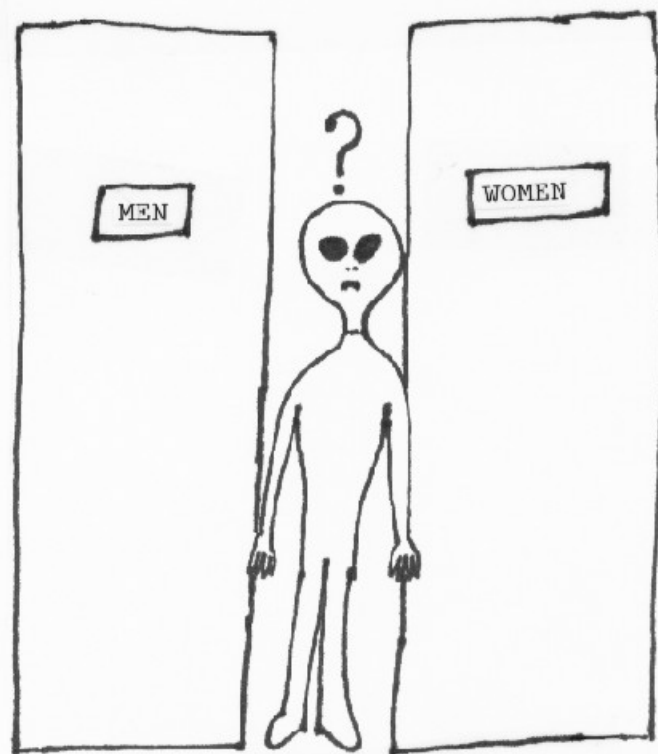

Angel hair was a part of the UFO phenomenon for a while in the early days. A teacher and students at Marysville, Ohio had seen a cigar-shaped object hovering over the elementary school. It had windows and glowed so brightly that they had to shield their eyes. When it silently accelerated to a terrific speed, it left a three mile trail of white asbestos-like strands which settled over trees, bushes, and telephone lines. Some of the angel's hair was recovered. The strands could not be broken, but it disappeared after they touched it. The teacher's hands temporarily turned green after he handled it.

Frightened citizens in France claimed that a substance had trapped a doctor like an insect caught in a web. As he struggled, the angel's hair released him, re-gathered, and rose into the air.

Keyhoe ends the book by summarizing the Flight-19 incident involving five Avenger aircraft that were lost on a training flight. His claim was that ships and planes searched 28000 square miles and found no debris. The F-94 that disappeared off the scope over Lake Superior had produced no debris. There had also been an incident in October of 1954 in which a Navy Super Constellation with 42 on board had disappeared. Planes and ships searched for days and never found wreckage or bodies. The closing paragraphs offer up the idea that all three planes had been kidnapped.

Cosmic Conundrum

Field Investigator Update:
February, 1999

By Craig R. Lang - FI Coordinator

After a long absence, the field investigator update column resumes as part of our newly rejuvenated newsletter. One of the things which occurred in the absence of this column, was that I was off studying for my certification as a hypnotherapist. I now have my certification and we have begun the capability to work more closely with CE4 experiencers.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, the skies over Minnesota have been relatively quiet over the last couple of months. We have not had many immediate reports of new sightings. However, the case load among the field investigators remains relatively high as many of us continue to seek out and investigate older sighting and encounter reports. Many of these are discovered through the grapevine by individual investigators, and some begin to form a picture of local sighting waves of the recent past.

One particularly interesting set of events was a wave of sightings which occurred in St. Francis, MN in the mid to late eighties. I first learned of this when I was contacted this summer while at the MUFON conference by a man whose relative lives in the St. Francis area. This relative had apparently had a significant sighting there in the mid 1980's.

I subsequently followed up on this and learned that there had been a brief but intense wave of sightings there in approximately 1986. Each sighting was very similar, in which a ball of blue light, about the size of a dinner table, was observed to hover at, or just below the tree line. In all cases, the object would be observed to repeatedly descend to ground level, then ascend again, to its original location. In several cases, a beeping or whirring sound was heard.

The witness to one of these events also informed me of another sighting, which had happened to a friend of hers. I also contacted this other witness, anticipating that this would be a second witness to the '86 events. However, this second sighting instead turned out to be associated with the 1992 wave in Elk River, Minnesota. The sighting occurred in the first week of July, 1992. The witness was sitting up late at night when she heard a "God awful roar", and looked out her front window to see a large disk, shooting straight for the house. She was afraid that the object would hit the house. However, it passed overhead from North to South, very low over the roof. She hurried to her south window to observe it receding into the distance. She described the object as being about half the size of the house. It was circular and ringed with red lights, moving fast and making a roar like the reverse thrust of a commercial jet. She felt that the object might have landed in the field across the street from her house - raising the suggestion that a close encounter might have occurred to one or more residents in that area.

There have been several indications of additional witnesses to this and other events in the Elk River and St. Francis sighting waves. If you know of anyone who might be able to shed additional light on these events, or any other sightings, please contact Craig Lang (ph: 763-560-1532, e-mail: crlang@mm.com).

For those wishing to become a field investigator themselves, classes are conducted approximately three times a year, as sufficient interest is indicated. We currently plan to hold our next class in the last three weeks of March.

If you are interested, and feel that you have the necessary time, energy, and objectivity, please contact Craig Lang. Alternatively, you can sign up on the interest sheet which is placed at the back of the room during each MN MUFON meeting. If you have not already done so, you also will need to join MUFON as a field investigator trainee and purchase the MUFON field investigators manual.

We always need more investigators in our effort to better understand the UFO and CE4 phenomenon. For those who seriously take up the study of UFO events, challenge and mystery will never be in short supply.

As I See It:
An Editorial by Joel Henry
MN MUFON FI and Journal Editor

The Day the UFO came.

Imagine if you will, as some already have done literally, that a glowing object is above you in the sky. It moves and looks like nothing from Earth.

You suddenly realize that you are not alone in the universe and it sends a chill down your spine. You wonder who they are and why they are here. Then it dawns on you that all those other reports could not have been all weather balloons and swamp gas. It's a cosmic can of beans that has been opened and spilled out before you. You feel alone because you know others will scoff and laugh. You feel threatened because there is no one there to protect you. You feel betrayed by the very people whom you elected to represent you and the military whose duty it is to protect us all.

The duty of those entrusted with the power, authority, and ability to deal with it has been denied and ignored. They have insulted you and turned their collective backs on you. You now realize this is not the same world you thought it was yesterday. It seems a crime that such a weight should suddenly fall on the shoulders of one so unprepared, unqualified, and unwilling to bear the responsibility of dealing with it. As if the problems and stresses of ordinary life were not enough. Now you know how all the other witnesses that came before you felt (and still feel.) Your world view shattered, you feel naked before forces you can neither control nor understand. It's like being in a herd of cattle all your life and suddenly you look up and see the man with the rifle and you realize all is NOT well on the farm.

Those who do not witness such an event have the choice of being complacent about it or not. The witnesses do not. It's probably one of the most alone feelings a person can feel.

Fortunately, they are not alone. But at this point, they are intolerably powerless. Some choose denial (but it rarely lasts). Some convince themselves it's a positive experience and filled with hope. Then you sit down and really think it through and realize you don't know for certain whether good or evil is the case. That gnawing feeling in your gut says if it was all good, there would be nothing to cover up. They would land, say hello and we would all have been friends 50 years or more ago.

I have never, to the best of my recollection, actually seen a UFO. Even so, I have come to the conclusion that some of them are real, solid, intelligently controlled vehicles.

If you have never seen a UFO, try to put yourself in the shoes of one who has. There's nothing to laugh about.

AN ESTIMATE OF THE SITUATION 1999

By William I. McNeff
(MN MUFON Assist. State Dir.)

Last year I summarized what I believed to be the probable truth about the so-called UFO/ET phenomenon (referred to hereinafter as "The Phenomenon"). This is what the military calls making "an estimate of the situation." I am repeating that this year with this article.

First, let's review the significance of a visit to earth by intelligent extraterrestrial entities. The impact of such an event would likely only be exceeded by a natural disaster, such as an asteroid striking the earth, a nuclear holocaust, or the arrival on earth of a divine being. The Phenomenon certainly ranks high in significance. For this reason, I would suggest to any who are relatively new to the study of The Phenomenon, that if you find anything I write here difficult to believe, you consider doing some homework. The public library is a good place to start. I would suggest that you read a number of books about UFOs, both pro and con. You might also do as I have done, and ask people whom you know well if they have had any unusual experiences that might be related to The Phenomenon. Then you will have a basis for agreeing or disagreeing with what I have to say in this article. I predict you will be surprised.

During the past year or so we have had statements pro and con on The Phenomenon by astronauts, including some of the most famous of the original astronauts. Gordon Cooper told of his personal sightings over Europe of hundreds of UFOs, craft that flew at altitudes so high that they were out of reach of the best aircraft the U.S. had in the skies. He also told how, at Edwards AFB, he sent a photography crew out on the base to film aircraft, who were therefore fortunately on the scene when a disk-shaped craft, which he believes was not one of ours, landed on the dry lake bed and the crew was able to shoot several minutes of film of the object before it took off again. Cooper viewed the developed film, and then per instructions sent it off to higher headquarters in the east, where it was never heard from again.

Edgar Mitchell stated that he had talked to people in three different countries, who told him that in the course of their official duties they had been face-to-face with alien beings. About a year ago, one of the younger astronauts, when asked about UFOs and ETs, said that he didn't know anything about the subject, but would look into it and if he found out anything, he would share it. At the end of a recent talk on a subject not related to UFOs showed a slide of what we would call a "little gray alien" and said without preamble or later explanation, "You can take it from me: These guys are real!"

What are the facts about the Phenomenon? Most important of all, hundreds of thousands of people have reported seeing UFOs. The National Archives has about 15,000 reports made to the U.S. Air Force from 1947 to 1969, when the Air Force said it was going out of the UFO investigations business, but many reports during those years were never made to the Air Force. Although the Air Force offered explanations for many of these reports, the explanations were often strained and some were patently false. The experience of investigators is that there are many more sightings than there are formal reports to news media, law officers, the Air Force and other government agencies. This is due to the "giggle factor", the atmosphere of humor and ridicule which has grown up around the subject, seemingly subtly fostered by the government and the press.

In spite of this, nationwide polls have shown over the years that a majority of Americans believe that UFOs exist as a significant phenomenon. The more educated the person, the more likely he or she is to believe this. But perhaps what people believe is not as important as what they have reported seeing. Thousands of reports show basic similarities between the objects seen and their behaviors. A philosopher has said that when you have basic agreement in the reports of thousands of people, it is mathematically a virtual certainty that the phenomenon, whatever it is, exists. Even more important, we have physical evidence. By "we" I mean the UFO research community and the scientific community -- these communities overlap by virtue of the increasing number of scientists who study the Phenomenon. I have listed this evidence in a past article in this Newsletter. Heading the list is the Ubatuba, Brazil magnesium samples. These samples allegedly came from the explosion of a UFO near a beach.

The Brazilian Ministry of Agriculture determined the density of these samples, and the late Paul Hill, NASA scientist, explained in his book that this density shows that the magnesium is an isotope which is rare on earth. This is very strong evidence that the material is extraterrestrial.

There are the Provence, France ground traces, studied by GEPAN, an official agency of the French government, showing anomalous changes in the soil and plants at a reported UFO landing site. There are the Dexter, Michigan ground samples showing anomalous radiation; the Minot AFB 1969 radar photos showing a craft moving at over 3000 mph, a speed unobtainable by earthly aircraft at that time, and the McMinnville, Oregon photos of a UFO pronounced as good evidence after several scientific analyses. We could give many other examples.

To this list must now be added the objects removed from several people by Dr. Roger Leir's team, objects suspected of having been implanted in these people by ETs, for purposes as yet unknown. Chemical analysis shows some of these to have unearthly ratios of trace elements and isotopes. A large number of people have told stories, with or without the aid of hypnosis, of being taken aboard UFOs by aliens, given physical examinations, and being involved in genetic experiments to the point of production of babies which appear to be part alien, part human. Some also tell of implants placed in their bodies by these aliens. A variety of alien types or races have been described by these witnesses, and certain types are repeatedly described, most notably a small, 4 foot tall, large-eyed gray-skinned being.

In addition, there are the recent computer analyses of the photographs taken of alleged Roswell crash debris in 1947 at the air base at Dallas. Blowups and computer enhancements of a typewritten message held in General Roger Ramey's hands seem to show significant phrases including "victims of the crash", which would imply that the existence of victims, whether living or dead, was covered up. Further computer analysis is needed to verify the contents of this message to the extent possible. There is no question that the photos are authentic; they are in the archives of the University of Texas.

While we are on the subject of Roswell, where a number of living witnesses testify that something highly unusual crashed in July of 1947, leaving dead creatures on the scene, we should note that when the General Accounting Office conducted their investigation at the request of Rep. Steven Schiff, N.M., they found that the "traffic" records (the records of all incoming and outgoing messages) for the Roswell air field had been destroyed without formal authorization, against military policy, for a year before and a year after the incident. In my opinion this points to a cover-up. However, I would agree a cover-up was justified at that point in time to prevent possible high technology from crashed vehicles from falling into the wrong hands.

So, with physical evidence, the authority of several of the astronauts, and the reports of hundreds of thousands of people over the last 50 years, it must be said that there is strong evidence, if not proof, that we are being visited by several races of beings from outside of earth. There is no convincing evidence that there is any hostile intent by any of these beings. However, they seem to be forgoing open contact. We should not be surprised about this, considering the human race's record of hostility and warfare. Perhaps they are waiting for us to show certain signs of maturity before they make open contact. Let us hope we can show such signs soon.

UFOLOGY NEWS

APRO FILE MICROFILM LOCATED

PROJECT 1947, the research study of the beginning of the UFO era, announced the recovery of a large portion of the microfilmed files of the Aerial Phenomena Research Organization (APRO), the first worldwide civilian UFO group to be organized. The APRO files have been inaccessible to researchers for over a decade since the demise of the organization following the deaths of founders Coral Lorenzen in 1988 and Jim Lorenzen in 1986.

Founded in 1952 and already mentioned menacingly by the CIA Robertson Panel in January 1953, APRO collected UFO data from all over the world during its nearly four decades of existence. APRO had an extensive UFO investigative network with representatives in more than 50 countries, especially in South America. In the 1970's with the aid of a small grant APRO began microfilming its UFO sighting files. As many as three separate microfilm reels are thought to exist. The first microfilm roll contains reports from ancient times to December 1956. The second microfilm confirmed to exist contains reports from December 1956 to 1962. The third microfilm, thought to exist by a number of people but yet to be confirmed, evidently covered 1962 to 1966.

The microfilm was located through the courtesy of Brad Sparks, long time UFO researcher and former APRO assistant director of research. Sparks also had leads to the 2nd microfilm reel which are now being pursued by Project 1947. After a long hiatus, Sparks recently returned to UFO research and has written on significant UFO topics including the well-documented RB-47 case of 1957, the Roswell case, and "MJ-12", astronaut sightings, radar-visuals, and other cases involving significant scientific content.

The APRO material has very little overlap or duplication with the UFO files of the old National Investigations Committee on Aerial Phenomena (NICAP) and the Civilian Saucer Intelligence (CS I-New York), now incorporated with the files of the Center for UFO Studies (CUFOS) in Chicago.

Jan Aldrich, coordinator of Project 1947, remarked, "The reports, letters, investigations, and newspaper clippings contained in the APRO microfilm have few duplications of the reports in the files of NICAP, CSI, CUFOS, Barry Greenwood, Dr. Leon Davidson, or Loren Gross. Davidson had a worldwide clipping service which provided him with large numbers of clippings from South America. Greenwood and I have also done extensive research in South American newspapers in the Library of Congress, Harvard, Yale, and many other libraries. Yet the APRO South American newspaper clippings are essentially unique compared with what has already been collected."

The microfilm contains more than 1,000 pages of reports from ordinary citizens, pilots, the military and others. Many of these reports were not published in the APRO Bulletin or the Lorenzens' books. Southwest Microfilms of El Paso, Texas, produced the APRO file microfilm and exercised great care to assure legibility of the material. A search for copies of the other microfilm reels continues. Several former APRO officials have been contacted in connection with the search.

"I was especially happy to see a number of pre-1947 reports which I had submitted to APRO years ago, but were lost from my files in an accident," said Aldrich. "This recovered APRO microfilm now joins a library of more than 400 microfilm rolls which contain official and private material on UFO's. We are now zeroing in on the APRO microfilm files for 1957 to 1962. A long time UFO researcher has promised it to us if his efforts to locate it bear fruit."

This is the second large portion of the APRO files recovered and available for research. Previously Canadian John Musgrave shared his Canadian Collection with Project 1947. Before APRO's demise Musgrave had copied all Canadian material in the APRO files for his own research project. Copies of Musgrave's collection which includes the APRO material are at CUFOS and at Project 1947.

Common Sense II - Rebuttal to a Reptile in Human Clothing

For those of you who believe extraterrestrials are our friends and mean us no harm, here is a letter of food for thought. (I tend to take the "Mulder View": Trust No One, especially strangers- and E.T.'s are as stranger as you can get.) [Note: The article below reflects only the opinions of the author and myself- Joel Henry, Ed.]

This Treatise is called "More Common Sense" in memory of Thomas Paine when he tried to explain the facts of life to the colonists prior to the Revolutionary War.

This letter is in rebuttal to the one Dr. Richard Boylan gave to a female abductee in a recent Contact Forum letter. Boylan's letter was a classic example of a reptilian propagandist and apologist lame efforts to justify evil perpetrated upon an innocent person.

My name is James Bartley and I am a close associate and colleague of Barbara Bartholic of Tulsa Oklahoma. Barbara is the most knowledgeable Reptilian researcher on this planet. There is no one on this planet who knows more about the Alien Abduction phenomena than Ms. Bartholic. She has worked with over seven hundred abductees over a span of two decades. I also work closely with Eve Frances Lorgen of San Diego county, California who is also a protege of Ms. Bartholic. I am an abductee myself and speak from the standpoint of Wisdom, which is knowledge gained through experience. I'm not interested in endless conjecture and speculation.

It IS About Siiritual Warfare

I have the maturity to recognize that what we are involved with is spiritual warfare on a cosmic multi-dimensional scale. The reader simply must be aware that the first line of defense for the dark gods is the so-called UFO research community itself. There is nothing simpler than activating the ego of the so-called UFO researcher. It has long been a part of their Modus Operandi. Richard Boylan, Steven Greer and the rest of the Muppet Show are classic examples of manipulated and programmed Muppets who have had their puny egos activated and who have been sent out into the world to impose their wills upon abductees and "experiencers" who are still seeking the approval of others.

Boylan used the usual canned responses in his absurd letter. Namely: 1) The ludicrous notion that the woman was merely suffering from spiritual retardation and was mentally incapable of understanding the "benevolent" nature of the horrific and unwanted experimentation that was being conducted on her.

Witnesses to the Alien Lies

Right now Barbie and I are working with a woman who is literally having her nerve tissues harvested by the aliens. They are replacing her nerve endings with alien nerve endings and are plying this woman with chemicals to promote the growth of the alien nerve tissue.

This woman is eminently qualified to discuss what is happening to her. She is an Electron Microscopist and has spent over ten years working in Tissue Culture Research and Dermatology. She has worked for 23 years in Cancer Research.

This woman is in constant pain and has contemplated suicide on a number of occasions. What has happened to her has absolutely nothing to do with spiritual evolution.

We have also worked with countless women who have suffered painful and bloody hemorrhages, sometimes lasting for days, after the “benevolent EI” doctors had made an unwanted house call. What, the discerning human must ask, does profuse and painful bleeding have to do with “spiritual evolution.” Whatever sophistry of reasoning Boylan uses to justify all of this just gives the reader an excellent opportunity to study the language of a Perpetrator.

Blame it all on Human Military/Industrialists

The second familiar excuse Boylan uses is to heap all of the blame upon “the Global Industrialist and Militarist.” This is one of the most insidious methods the dark side is using against the human race.

One of the main planks of the Reptilian Agenda has been to heap all of the blame upon the apparent humans who are merely the errand boys of the reptilian overlords of this world. I say “apparent” because many of the “Illuminated” members of the human race are actually high ranking Adepts, well versed in the Black Arts.

See No Evil, Hear No Evil, Speak No Evil

The New Age La-Dee-Dahs claim that there is no such thing as Evil or Demons, which makes these same New Age La-Dee-Dahs the butt of endless jokes by Witches, Warlocks and Satanists throughout the world because the latter derive their power from demonic entities. An Adept who invokes the power of the dark side and conjures up malevolent non-human entities know more about the paranormal in general and about UFO’s in particular than the densest UFO researcher will ever know.

Blame Game Creates More Human Conflict

By constantly blaming “the military” and the “globalist industrialist” the reptilian propagandists condition the abductees into believing that ALL human institutions are bad and that the only hope one has to reach the chimerical “: next level of consciousness, evolution, vibratory frequency” et al is to look to the skies towards the same dark gods who are responsible for their current state of spiritual enslavement.

Never mind that for the most part these “Globalist and Militarist” are part of the same old fraternal orders which worship the patriarchal serpent gods and in many cases are Hosts for Reptilian entities themselves. (We know people who can actually SEE the reptilian image superimposed upon the features of apparent “people” whether the latter are in public or on CSPAN. Some of them can also “sniff out” shape shifting reptilians because they simply don’t smell the way normal humans do. I can feel negative reptilian energy when it’s in my presence and I can tell you that Boylan has abusive and nauseating reptilian energy in god-awful abundance)

Indwelling Reptilian Beings in Humans or Hosts

These hosts and their fellow travelers operate as a Fifth Column here on Earth to set the stage for the return of the Dark Reptilian Gods. The so-called UFO Research Community is awash with these “Muppets.” Even I have to laugh at the irony of it: Literal hosts for reptilian entities facilitating abductee support groups, lecturing at so called “UFO Conferences” and speaking on the Art Bell Show. This is so because of the long term genetic and soul-matrix manipulation of the human race.

At a recent conference in San Diego an abductee was regressed “live” in front of all the other conferees in a closed session. When her memory of a benevolent childhood ET encounter transformed into a frightening encounter with a claw-handed reptilian, Boylan asked her after the regression if she had heard “the sound of helicopters” prior to the encounter.

The implication of his question is apparent to anyone who can still think: It wasn’t nasty and harmful ET’s abducting the lady... it was “the military in their helicopters.”

First of all, I have no beef against mind controlled and perhaps cloned out military security thugs. (They do exist. Ask survivors of Hurricane Andrew in the horrific devastation.) It is questionable whether the latter even have souls as we have come to know them.

Infestation of Reptilian Astral Pod-like Entities
Another irony about that conference was that the individual at the situation desk at the register was a Host for a Reptilian Entity. This particular entity is summoned by her “Spirit Guides” to visit Sedona Arizona at intervals throughout the calendar year to take part in “Rebirthing Exercises.”

During one of these exercises reptilian astral pods (very dark smoky reptilian shaped astral entities) were seen by numerous witnesses to enter and exit the abdomen of the host whilst the latter growled and hissed as if in a state of possession. The host was merely being re-infested and this is done at intervals. This host has all the facial and physical characteristics that mark it as a reptilian hybrid and yet to the unsuspecting “contactee” or “experiencer” she merely comes off as a ditzy New Age La Dee Dah.

This entity has facilitated a number of support groups in the southwest and has left scores of psychologically and physically wrecked “contactees” in its wake over the years. (There are harmful side effects from being in too close proximity to a reptilian host over an extended period of time. The reptilian energy/essence, which oozes out of these containers, seeks to enter through holes in our light body and will eventually corrupt us from within if we hang around them for too long.

An Occult Connection

It may seem somewhat paradoxical that Sedona Arizona is a “New Age Mecca” when at the same time it is a major hub of Satanic Ritual Activity. Also places like Salt Lake City. (Black magicians who have defected from the craft have stated this) There is also a large underground reptilian base beneath Boynton Canyon where much work is done jointly by the ET’s and their human military vassals because the entire region is a dimensional vortex area which explains why there is so much Satanic Ritual Activity there. There is a “FUNDAMENTAL CONNECTION BETWEEN THE OCCULT AND THE UFO PHENOMENON. THAT’S IT, PERIOD.”

Now, back to the “globalist and industrialist.” Mind controlled security thugs are not the problem and anyone with the proper amount of maturity will understand that. And I speak as an authority on the subject because I’ve been run off the highway by them, dosed with powerful infections by them, dosed with powerful drugs by them etc, etc, etc. My beef is not against the human vassals of the dark gods. My beef is against the dark gods themselves. I’m not interested in the third team.

Time and again abductees accept at face value what is presented to them. If they “see” men in military attire, they automatically assume that what they are looking at are human beings when in some cases the latter have proven to be shape shifting reptilians. Unlike the surface world, sensitive information is not limited to levels of classification or “Need to Know” but rather to Levels of Awareness.

All that is required of a mind controlled security thug is to apply muscle when needed. It doesn’t have the luxury of Independent Thought. It is a tragic mistake for abductees to assume that the “Military” is responsible for high level policy making in the underground bases. The latter presupposes that humans are in charge and that the human/non-human interaction is a relatively new phenomenon, which it is most certainly not. The interaction between human and non-human intelligences has an Occult basis and was thousands if not millions of years in the making.

Who Benefits From This New Social Movement?

The discerning abductee must ask the question: Who benefits by making abductees believe that everything negative about the UFO subject is due to the Military? Why, the “Benevolent ET’s” of course. At this point the abductee should be asking, “Why does Boylan and Greer and the rest of the Muppet Show hate the human race so much? (Greer says people who call themselves “abductees” have an inferiority complex and just want people to feel sorry for them.) More to the point, why do these Muppets want Humans in general and abductees in particular to fear and to loathe “the Military?” Again, who or what stands to benefit by this? Who indeed.

Apocalyptic Disaster Scenes

Yet another phony apology the reptilian apologists come up with is “how mankind is responsible for ruining the ecology of the planet.” It is very common for abductees to be shown horrific scenes of climactic and ecological catastrophes in holographic or virtual reality scenarios sometimes to the point where the abductee breaks down in tears.

Question to all of the experiencers out there who have been shown these types of visions: Why are they trying to lay this ecological guilt trip on you? Were you responsible for running the Exxon Valdez aground in Alaska and spewing millions of barrels of crude oil into the ocean? Were you responsible for setting the oil rigs on fire in Kuwait or releasing all that oil in the Persian Gulf? Then why do you allow this very basic psychological warfare strategy to work on you to the point where you start crusading against the human race for “our collective mismanagement of this planet” instead of the aliens who are experts in weather weaponry?

In the counterintelligence world, a “sib” is a carefully planted rumor designed to undermine the morale and the will to resist of the enemy. For example, the British political warfare executive, “PWE” planted sibs amongst the German soldiers on the Russian front that the German medical establishment was compelled to start using Jewish blood during surgeries and blood transfusions on German soldiers because of the overall shortage of blood products. You can imagine the kind of effect this rumor had on German soldiers imbued with the Aryan superman myth! Likewise, another sib, which was planted amongst the front line German soldiers, was that Jews were responsible for spreading the bubonic plague in certain German cities.

Please observe how the hard core researchers like the late Karla Turner were constantly slandered and verbally abused by the likes of Boylan and the rest of the Muppet show. Question: What was it about Kandy Turner’s research that these Muppets found so threatening that they would heap endless streams of abuse and invective at her? Could it possibly be that there are aspects of this phenomenon that are so terrible that the Muppets of the world would rather have you dwell on the metaphysical and “spiritual” aspects of the experience--rather than the cold hard truth? What is doubly insidious about this form of Muppet propaganda is that it neatly capitalizes on the innate desire of the abductee, that what is happening to them is for their own spiritual evolution as well as for the ultimate benefit of mankind.

It is clear from the above examples that the British political warfare executive and its offspring--the American Office of War Information (OWI) did not spare the sensibilities of the German troops at the front--and indeed exploited absurd Nazi notions of Aryan racial supremacy and racial inferiority. They were trying to wear down the fighting capacity of the enemy.

Do you remember what Philip Krapf said in his book “Contact Has Begun?” He said “The Verdants” (Why didn’t they just call themselves the Green Party?) said they have perfect control over the weather and can manipulate the gravity field of any planet they choose to accommodate them perfectly. It's called Terra-Forming and Weather Weaponry. I myself have seen UFO's cloak themselves in cloud formations, indeed I have seen the cloud formations actually being created, which was quite a sight to see, let me tell you.

Psychological Warfare Tactics

Bottom line: Do not allow these very basic psychological warfare and propaganda methods to work on you, the hapless :“experiencer”, contactee”, “light worker” or whatever adjective is used to describe people who are being injected, experimented upon, sexually molested et al by non human intelligences.

Please take the time to study Military History and especially the intelligence/counter-intelligence and security apparatus, which has evolved since World War Two.

Some of the methods being used by the reptilian propagandist like Boylan and Greer are so basic they wouldn't even have passed muster with any self respecting counterintelligence officer of World War II.

Study the “Double Cross System” in which captured German agents were “turned” by Britain's MI5 and made to send back misleading information (disinformation) to their Nazi German controllers. (And yes, did you know that Adolph Hitler had connections with the occult dark gods who worked their evil atrocities through him? Most of the people today naively believe that Adolph Hitler was the root source of the evil Nazi Regime, rather than the dark malevolent forces working through him. His abusive childhood is a classic study of how the dark forces eventually consume someone from within. Base, primordial and perverse characteristics are symptomatic of a manipulated and demon infested individual such as Adolph Hitler was.

Read about the super-secret “London Controlling Section” which was responsible for the dissemination of all “Ultra” derived intelligence (intel obtained through the deciphering of enemy codes) and was responsible for all the cover and deception operations related to ultra derived intelligence. As Winston Churchill says, “In war, the truth must be guarded by a body guard of lies.”

An understanding of the Surface Intelligence and Security Apparatus is absolutely essential to any understanding of this whole mess before you start delving into the subsurface world where “need to know” and “security clearances” don't even matter. As stated above, in the deep black aerospace/reptilian control led subterranean world, knowledge is limited to levels of awareness and there is always a price to pay to get to the next level of awareness. There is no such thing as a free lunch, not on this planet anyway. If you want the knowledge there is going to be a certain price you will have to pay and most are unwilling to pay that price.

Conditioned and Triggered Responses in Contactees/Experiencers

The reason why so many abductees are hopelessly confused about this whole mess is because trigger mechanisms have been programmed into them to keep them from getting at the truth of their experiences. I have seen it countless times where an abductee will immediately fall asleep the moment the lecturer begins talking about “fear based” issues but when he/she attends a lecture by a channeler or some other light worker, the abductee is bright and attentive and awake during the whole lecture.

Falling asleep is just one trigger mechanism. Another is annoyance or anger at the “fear based” lecturer or abductee. Likewise an overwhelming compulsion to get up and walk out, to get up and eat, to get up a smoke a cigarette, getting nauseous, a headache etc, etc, etc.

I have known people who are absolutely incapable of finishing a “fear based” book but can rip through reptilian disinformation books in a matter of hours. What's up with that? I've seen abductees listen to their spirit guides who consistently detract them away from the alleged fear based research information that will probably trigger them into a panic attack. Why do you think that is? Could it be that the self-same spirit guides are the perpetrators themselves?

In the battleground commonly referred to as the "Abductee Support Group" this knee-jerk hostility immediately manifests itself amongst programmed and manipulated New Age La-Dee-Dahs. Whenever "Fear Based Issues" like painful back problems (very common amongst those who have memories of reptilian contact especially amongst females) or autoimmune disorders or the whole gamut of gynecological problems are regarded as spiritually retarded fear mongers. Furthermore, those who bring these topics up are sometimes accused of being some kind of spiritually unevolved disinformation artist!

The cold hard truth is that most UFO researchers and abductees aren't even worth spying on. To the gullible and manipulated---everyone seems to be a government agent! If that were true there would be no one left to spy on. The painful truth is some of these abductees and researchers are having their phones tapped and mail opened because there is no one else around in their region worth instilling paranoia on.

Consider this scenario: An intelligence officer says to his general: "General, it seems that the enemy is massing in our front. We have identified certain units, which have arrived recently from other areas. The enemies wireless communications traffic has suddenly gone dead and all signs point to an imminent attack in our sector." How do you think the general will respond to his intelligence chief? "Why are you being so fear based? Why are you drawing that negativity to you? Blah, blah, blah, quack, quack, quack."

Can you see why I have so little patience for that sort of immaturity? The New Age La Dee Dahs consistently use a melange of metaphysical spiritual platitudes about the whole ET phenomenon and often times become irate and livid during these exchanges with abductees who are more mature and sensible than they are about the ET subject. And all of the vindictiveness and hollering by these New Age La Dee Dahs (Pagan Idolaters) is done in the name of "Love and Light." Of course.

Other program med behaviors are promiscuity, self destructive behaviors such as substance abuse, self destructive relationships (many female abductees have had at least one and usually more controlling, domineering and abusive men on their lives for extended periods of time. (It never occurred to them that these abusers were themselves being manipulated) and the list goes on and on and on and some of you "researchers" out there are still running around with that metal spoon in your pocket hoping to get a CE2 sample for analysis. You are still staying up all night atop a wind swept plateau hoping a UFO flies by. GROW UP.

Once and for all: This is not an Alien Phenomenon per Se, it is a Human Phenomenon because it's happening to humans. Logic, is what Mr. Spock calls it. And if you are going to take part in this great drama--please, please, please do not allow the aliens to activate your ego. It is the simplest thing. A few meaningless telepathic transmissions, a few UFO fly-bys, a few "meaningful synchronicities" and your egos are activated and then you turn into another Muppet. I call these types of manifestations "parlor tricks." I'm not interested in parlor tricks. The same exact thing happens to budding wiccans and witches. The very first spell or incantation works and they think they were responsible for it when it was actually the demon or familiar spirit who is manipulating them. i.e. their Handlers. (Handler is a term I use for the abduction syndrome because it is the most apt.)

The real message of the Boylan's, Greers and all of these other Muppets is "Don't bother me with the facts." "If you don't believe what I believe you are a spiritual retard and probably a government agent to boot." And once again, all of this wailing and gnashing of teeth is done in the name of "Love and Light".

What we are involved with is Spiritual Warfare and I'll argue that point until someone else is blue in the face. Everything has to first manifest in the unseen realms before they manifest in the visual spectrum, in the spiritual before it manifests in the physical. Look around you: The symbology of the reptilian overlordship is all around. The thought form of reptilians in the mass media is constantly hammering you. Crude and vulgar behaviors are being presented to you in the mass media and the so-called entertainment industry--as if crude and vulgar behavior is The Norm in our society today. The baseness and vulgarity, which is being promoted, is symptomatic of a reptilian influenced society. People are so used to the lies that if they heard the truth they would probably have an allergic reaction to it!

The Original Serpent Seed

The reptilians strive to activate that dark serpent seed which is programmed within all of us. The struggle is within. The opposing polarities of Good and Evil are striving to promote certain attributes and behaviors within us. One side wants to corrupt us from within, the other wants us to break out of this spiritual prison. Ultimately it comes down to your own individual choice. I hesitate to use the term "free will" because, being an abductee myself, I know that I have been manipulated and programmed and it's a constant struggle to overcome all of these hang-ups--but that's what will make the ultimate victory that much greater. I firmly believe in the indomitability of the Human Spirit and I firmly believe that it is in our destiny to achieve Nobility as a race. If we had just been left alone I am sure we would have reached that level of greatness already but alas, that hasn't been the case.

Take the time take to read books by Frederick Douglas, the pre-civil war ex-slave who wrote the classic autobiography, "My Bondage, My Freedom."

This Is Not a Popularity Contest

I don't want to know what the academic community knows because they are not qualified to tell me anything. Everything I've learned has come from my own experiences and studies as well as from the mentorship of Barbara Bartholic of Tulsa, Oklahoma. I'm not in this for popularity or ego gratification, which seems to be the norm in the UFO research community. Indeed most of you out there never even heard of me. All I ever wanted was the respect and admiration of the people I respected and admired. People like Barbara Bartholic and Eve Lorgen. I am not seeking the approval of others. I could give a rip about popularity.

"War is about war... it's not about popularity making." General William Tecumseh Sherman

I can't say enough about Barbie and Evie. They have endured things that would have made a lesser person run off screaming to the nearest mental institution. They are true spiritual warriors in every sense of the term.

Spiritual Warfare, ladies and gents... that is what this gig is all about. Were it left up to some of you peaceniks out there, those of us on the West Coast would be speaking Japanese, those on the East Coast would be speaking German and we would need passports to visit the southern states of the Confederacy where there would still be slavery. The fight has been programmed right out of some of you people. You will continue to "research" up and until the great reptilian cattle drive in the sky begins.

It's the old story, "If you don't stand for something, you will fall for anything." Words to live by. And if you choose to be a New Age La Dee Dah and your children are having these abductions and you just blow off their concerns as being of no consequence, that makes you in my book a very bad parent. If people knew what kinds of conditioning and programming are being done to our children by the aliens, people's minds would short circuit instantly to retain their sanity, if nothing else.
